

LOCAL ELECTIONS.

improper done in the ballot. That precinct had a registration of 681, and three hundred of them were in by noon. The only time there was any disagreement was when F. H. Dennison came in with his offering for that state. It was found that he had no place to sleep and there was some discussion about it. It was finally concluded that as he was evidently entitled to a vote barring that disability it would be a shame to keep him out of his citizenship just for that. So his ballot was accepted. There was a similar case in the Second precinct but the ballot was refused.

It is estimated by the Populists in the Second ward that R. J. Sloat, candidate for representative, will run ahead of his ticket and perhaps receive a majority there.

The loiterers about the Second ward polling places are very good natured and put in the time playing tricks and joking. At the East Sixth street place several men were standing in a knot talking the situation over very quietly when a couple of cold blooded fellows with their hands in their pockets and evil designs in their brains picked up a long wire from the street and ran around the crowd in opposite directions, getting the men into a beautiful tangle and breaking up the argument.

A good deal of good natured fun is being made still of the size of the Australian ballot and one fellow in the Sixth street precinct was very mad because he could not get a hand full of Republican ballots to peddle. He couldn't understand what such a fool law was ever made for. His occupation was gone.

On Monroe street there was a very particular young man who wanted the thing done right so he got a ruler and ruled the crosses on his ballot to a nicety. Charley Elliott and Charley Gault were out early driving around to the different precincts to see how it is going, and Police Commissioner Young got up extra early to start on the same mission.

The Santa Fe shops are closed for the day and the men are being given a chance to do all the arguing they want to. One man over in the Third precinct of the Second ward left home this morning and told his wife he was going down to vote against the amendment. On the way down he heard a neighbor abusing his wife and it had such an effect on him that he voted for the amendment after all.

It is impossible to tell anything about how the vote on the amendment is going in this ward.

Third Ward.

In the Third ward this morning things were quiet—so quiet that it did not seem possible that a state election was in progress. When the polls opened there were voters waiting and in the Third precinct there were 135 in line, but when they had voted there was no crowd.

The Third precinct is the largest in the city, 802 being the number registered and if one man votes every minute they will not all have voted when the polls close at 6 o'clock. At 10:30, 389 had voted. There are eleven booths at the voting place, which is at the corner of Clay and King streets.

In the Second precinct 217 votes were cast at 11 o'clock and the voters were coming in very slowly. The Republican challengers, Arthur McCabe and Frank Brooks, had not entered an objection at that time. A single person was seen outside the polling place and some of those who came to vote had difficulty in finding the booths and election board.

In the First precinct the first man to vote was Homer Bowman, who wore a Morrill badge conspicuously pinned on his coat. Only about twenty voters were waiting when Judge Crouch proclaimed the polls open.

Oscar Swayze, who is the Republican challenger, entered a protest when State Auditor Van R. Prather asked for a ballot. He objected to Prather on the same ground that Commissioner Herald ruled out the Washburn college students—that he was only residing here temporarily. The judges allowed him to vote after he had taken the required obligation that Topeka was his home. The ballot was numbered so that it may be thrown out.

Fourth Ward.

The Fourth ward, which comprises all that portion of the city west of Kansas avenue and north of Eighth street, has always been one of the strongest Republican wards in the city. The registration is 1,714, and the Republican poll shows a plurality of 633. The Populists claim it will not exceed 200. There is one Republican man at each polling place, and up to noon the only appearances of disorder of any kind were a few heated political discussions outside the 100-foot limit.

First precinct—located in the feed store at 121 West Fifth street—has a registration of 404, of whom 176 had voted at 11:30. Of these 114 are claimed by the Republicans as theirs, not including any doubtful votes. Only one voter needed any assistance.

A man wearing a straw hat and an ulster asked to take his ballot home and bring it back after dinner and deposit it, but the judges wouldn't agree to it. Another man tore off that portion of the ballot he did not wish to use. C. D. Westcott registered, but his name didn't appear on the books, and he protested strongly that he was cheated out of his vote. Guilford Dudley has known Tom Archer, one of the judges, for a great many years, and thought it was a "josh" when told to give his name.

"You know my name very well," Mr. Dudley said.

"That may be so, but I am not at liberty to call it Five votes," said Mr. Dudley. He told his name when he found he couldn't vote without doing so.

Second precinct—Polling place at 223 West Fourth street, registration 429. At 11:30 there had been 169 votes cast, of which the Republican tally man claimed 135 sure. Five votes were assisted, three colored and two white. John Flory was one of the latter, because he said his eyes were so poor he couldn't see good. He voted a mixed ticket it is said. He was down on the tally-book.

doubtful. M. E. Stoker, one of the judges, turned his face over to the Orphans home. There was considerable complaint at this precinct because the judges and clerks were not supplied with tables, chairs or light. They finally made a table by placing boards over two wooden horses, and boxes enough were found to go around for seats. They don't know what they'll do when it gets dark.

Third precinct—Located at 711 West Fourth street, registration 391. At 11:30 129 had voted, of which the Republicans claim 83, not including any doubtful votes. Only two voters were assisted. The only kick made is that of one of the judges, Frank Purcell, who says the election commissioner sent him a bottle of physic instead of a bottle of ink. The bottle looks as though he might be right, and is a sort of a thick brown. It resembles a mixture of flux, ex cascara sagrada and hydrastra.

Fourth precinct—Northwest corner of Sixth and Western avenues, registration 493. The vote at 11:30 was 189, and the Republicans claim 155 of them. Two men were assisted. Ole Hungele kept a Populist from voting, who lived on Morris avenue but moved two weeks ago. The Populist protested that he had slept in the vacated house three times since he moved so as to keep his vote, but the judges ruled against him. Another man wanted to vote who wasn't registered. He voted at the primary last summer and he thought that was all that was necessary.

Fifth Ward.

In the Fifth ward the vote is being polled rapidly. There has been some excitement all day in the second precinct where E. B. Whaley and Albert Barton had an altercation this morning and Mr. Whaley had another round this afternoon with John G. Hewitt.

No one has been hurt and it is expected that the Fifth ward will get through the day without any serious happenings.

Latest from the Precincts.

In the Fourth ward the vote was extremely heavy at the noon hour. At 2:30 this afternoon the vote already cast in that ward was more than two-thirds of the total registration. The vote in the various precincts at 2:30 this afternoon was as follows:

First precinct..... 269

Second precinct..... 311

Third precinct..... 290

Fourth precinct..... 342

Total in the Fourth ward..... 1212

Registration..... 1717

In the Third ward 1,446 had been cast at 2:30 p. m. In the First precinct, 390 in the Second, 412 and in the Third, 542.

The Republicans claim the ward by 900. There is a very light Overmyer vote and it is probable that he will receive less than 100 votes in the ward.

In the Third precinct, which is the largest, over 500 of the 800 votes were cast at noon.

At 2:30 p. m. in the First precinct of the Second ward 155 of the 372 registered have voted, and the ward is considered very much in doubt although a Republican living there declares it will go Populist.

In the Second precinct 255 of the 493 votes were in at 3 o'clock and the vote was considered about even, with a possible plurality for Morrill and the Republicans.

In the Third precinct the vote is conceded to be a Republican majority and 231 of the 418 votes have been cast.

The Fourth precinct is expected to give a Republican plurality at least and probably a majority; 325 of the 543 votes have been cast.

The Fifth precinct will be the banner Republican precinct of the Second ward and a Republican who has been keeping tab on it all day, declares that there will be three Republican votes there to two of any other kind. 450 of the 664 votes have been cast.

"TAMMANY DEAD."

A New York Dispatch Says Tammany is Done For.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The Post's (Democratic) special dated 4:30 p. m. says: Tammany is probably "killed dead." In New York City the election of 1894 is a thing of the past and in an hour the struggle throughout the state will be at an end.

The polls in this city closed at 4 o'clock and the work of computing the returns is now progressing rapidly and unless there has been more scratching than anticipated the general result of the war on Tammany will be known within three hours.

Reports from every precinct in the city at the closing hour show that there was a great slump in the late vote in the city.

In some cases twenty-six ballots had to be handled.

Of the vote recorded the anti-Tammany districts show the largest gain, and there was a decided falling off in the Tammany districts. In some of the latter the total vote cast will be less than what it was two years ago.

THE GREAT ARTISTS.

Valesquez was a self educated painter. His scenes and models were generally taken from peasant life.

Durer was the son of a goldsmith, and showing an appreciation of art was apprenticed to a draftsman.

Pordenone's saints were depicted with so great a display of muscle that it was commonly said all his holy men looked like prizefighters.

Tintoretto's real name was Jacopo Robusti. He was called Tintoretto from being the son of a dyer, the word Tintore having that meaning.

Vecchio's pictures exhibit one female face which recurs from time to time so frequently as to attract attention and excite curiosity. It is the portrait of his daughter.

Romano has the credit of completing a great number of Raphael's works, left unfinished at the death of that master. He was selected for that purpose by Raphael himself.

Cimabue's "Madonna," now in the Church of St. Maria Novella in Florence, when finished, was carried from his house to the church in solemn procession, with bands of music and great pomp.

Van Eyck was the inventor of a colorless varnish that could be applied to any picture without injury. For transparent and brilliant coloring the works of Hubert and Jan Van Eyck have never been surpassed.

KANSAS ELECTIONS.

Statements of Chairmen and Dispatches From Other Points.

Chairman Breidenthal of the Populist state central committee said this morning that he was confident of success.

He does not expect to get any returns before midnight as the count will be very slow. He said: "This is the first time we have used the Australian ballot at a state election and the ticket is very large."

"The count will be more rapid in the cities than in the country, but even in the cities there will be very few precincts counted out before midnight. There will be lots of scratching, which will make the count more difficult than it would be otherwise. The vote is being polled early and I think the big part of the entire vote was polled before noon. If we had the system used in New York where they begin counting early in the day we could know the result within an hour after the polls are closed, as it is, however, we can't know much about it before tomorrow."

Chairman Cyrus Leland, of the Republican state central committee, went to his home at Troy last night and is spending the day there at the polls. He is expected to reach Topeka tonight at midnight and will then have charge of headquarters until the count is finished.

State Senator Sterne, who is in charge of Republican headquarters, says everything looks like a Republican victory.

Chairman Leland said last night he expected to have enough returns some time tonight to determine the result.

FROM EMPORIA.

Reports Brought Here By Frank Fleniken of That City.

Chief Clerk Frank Fleniken of the Populist State Central committee came up from his home in Emporia this afternoon and says the Populists there are desperate. This morning they challenged the vote of C. S. Cross, cashier of the First National bank, but he was allowed to vote. The vote of George Plumb was also challenged, but he too voted.

Last night N. M. Hinshaw, of the State Board of Pardons, went around the streets and said he had $10,000 to bet on Lewelling. Wm. Martindale and a friend offered to cover the bet, when Hinshaw said the money was not there, but he would get it and said there was $20,000 more to bet the same way. The Republicans told him to bring on $30,000 more and they would cover it if presented up to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. No money had shown up when Fleniken left for Topeka.

Leavenworth County.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 6.—Today's election is the hottest held in this city and county for years. There are strong indications at noon that Morrill, Republican, will carry Leavenworth county by a few hundred plurality, with Lewelling a close second. The suffrage amendment will probably be defeated. The women are taking no part in the fight. A majority of tickets on the Democratic county ticket will probably be elected. The miners are voting solidly for Lewelling.

Brown County.

A telegram received at Republican headquarters this afternoon from Horton reads: "Heavy Republican gains. Railroad men voting Republican ticket solid. O. S. Carman."

Douglas County.

EDDORA, Nov. 6.—The German element here is voting almost solid for Major Morrill.

Crawford County.

The only news received at Populist headquarters was from Girard. Abe Steinbarger said that the Girard ward wired: "Will Lewelling win? Wire answer. One thousand here."

STEINBARGER.

GREAT BEND, Kas., Nov. 6.—The Republicans will probably carry the county ticket. The Populists are equally sure of the county ticket. The Girard vote on Jerry Simpson and Long will be very close with odds in favor of the former.

Atchison County.

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 6.—The weather is perfect and a full vote is being polled. The Republicans apparently are in the lead.

Covley County.

ARKANSAS CITY, Nov. 6.—About half the registered vote had been polled at noon, with the Republicans claiming 300 plurality in the city.

Pittsburg, Kan.

A dispatch to Chairman Breidenthal from Pittsburg, Kan., reads: "All right here. Will carry county. Democrats betting on Lewelling and Botkin."

Enterprise, Kan.

Another dispatch from Enterprise to Populist headquarters reads: "Quiet; indications favorable. C. HOFFMAN, Sedgewick County."

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 6.—Heavy vote being polled; no excitement to speak of, but Republicans appear to be voting straight, and Sedgewick county will probably give a Republican plurality. The vote on Jerry Simpson is being hotly contested, and betting on Long and Simpson is even.

Bourbon County.

FT. SCOTT, Kan., Nov. 6.—Election here progressing quietly, and large vote being polled. Indications are, Morrill will carry this city by 400 plurality over Lewelling.

Saline County.

Secretary J. L. Bristow, of the Republican state central committee, arrived this afternoon from his home at Salina and says: Saline county is sure to give Morrill a plurality of over 100. This county gave a plurality for Lewelling of 250, two years ago.

SAM SMALL GUARDED.

Five Policemen Escort Him From a Train in Virginia.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 6.—Rev. Sam Small closed the campaign here yesterday. Small spoke here about three weeks ago and some of his vulgar allusions displeased a large number of people who heard him. His friends, evidently fearing that he would not meet with a proper reception, had five policemen at the depot to receive him.

The hall in which he spoke was likewise as strongly guarded, and at the conclusion of his address he was escorted to the depot by several guardians of the peace, and by a bodyguard of citizens. No one attempted to molest him. His speech, which occupied over two hours, was intended to help Rucker's (Populist-Prohibition) campaign.

STATE ELECTIONS.

(Concluded from First Page.)

HILL CASTS HIS VOTE.

Someone in the Crowd Cheered for the Next Governor.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6.—It was shortly after 9 a. m. when the upper district of the Ninth ward there walked a well built man, with hands deep in his overcoat pockets.

As he stepped into the polling place to get his ballot, several persons made way for him and one of the inspectors said: "Let Senator Hill vote." Then somebody cheered for the next governor. Hill refused to take anybody's place in line and waited his turn, chatting with those nearest him.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Voting up to noon has been very light, compared with the registration, and unless there is more activity in the ensuing hours the number cast must be far short of the expectation.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Reports from the country are bad roads and light vote for the country are being cast. The vote has been cast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—2:30 p. m.—A heavy vote is being polled in Long Island city. Hill is said to be running ahead of his ticket. In the Ravenswood district a number of Italians who are employed on the docks are losing their votes on account of not being able to fold their tickets. Voting is slow owing to the number of ballots the voter must handle. There seems to be a prospect of the consolidation measure being carried.

From reports received from precinct commanders up to 1 o'clock concerning the progress of voting. Superintendent of Police Byrnes ventured to predict that no more than two-thirds of those whose names have been registered would be able to vote today.

It is alleged that Recorder Smythe, who is a candidate for re-election, is being watched by order of Tammany Hall, so that votes for Grant for mayor can be obtained.

WOMEN VOTING IN COLORADO.

Not Less Than 30,000 Women Vote in Denver Today.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 6.—It is safe to say that not less than half of the votes polled in this city today will be those of women. Out of a total registry of 70,000 in Arapahoe county about 30,000 are women and as a large number of the men registered were on the books a year ago and some have since left the city, while the female registration is all new, it is likely that more than three sevenths of the legal voters are women. The polls opened at 7 a. m. and at that time scores of women were in line in every precinct. Hundreds of carriages are being sent out by the city, many of the most prominent society ladies of the city, gathering the voters.

The original friends of equal suffrage are very much pleased at these indications of their claims. The old argument that the women did not want the ballot, and would not vote, has been successfully refuted by actual demonstration. It is a fact that the political organizations of the women in this state are more perfect and are doing more effective work than are those of the men, while the work of the female campaign speakers has been indefatigable.

Reports from all portions of the state show that the woman vote will be very heavy, though the ratio will not be so large in the mining districts, where the male population largely predominates. Partisanism among the women is very high and the probability is that most of them will vote straight tickets. This result will also in a measure be due to the fact that the system of voting in this state make scratching rather a tedious proceeding.

Nothing since the adoption of the Australian ballot system has contributed more to quietness and peace than the presence of the women at the polls. It is safe to say that not one of the 75,000 women who today exercised the right of franchise in Colorado has received anything but the most courteous treatment.

TROUBLE IN ST. LOUIS.

Some Repeating Done and an Arrest for Carrying a Knife.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Incidents of the election are few and trouble is at a premium. In the Nineteenth ward, a combination of ward workers of both parties are practically running things in behalf of candidates known to be "good Indians," but the situation has been, apparently accepted without demur. In one or two precincts there has been some repeating but it is not general. One or two minor personal scurrillages have occurred. In the Second ward Col. Steven DeLaesele, commander of the Italian-American cavalry organization of this city was arrested for carrying a stiletto, but gave bond.

MICHIGAN'S LIGHT VOTE.

Exceptionally Good Weather Falls to Bring the Voters Out.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—2:30 p. m.—Dispatches from the interior of the state unanimously report a light vote during this morning, notwithstanding exceptionally fine election weather. The principal fight in this city is between Collis (Rep.) and Griffin (Dem.) for congressman. The betting odds are rather favorable to Collis.

TENNESSEE PROBABILITIES.

Believed That Democratic Majorities Will Be Reduced.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6.—The vote in this city up to noon was rather light. Reports so far received from the state indicate a fair vote with some anomalous conditions which render it difficult to make estimates as to the results. The prevailing belief is that the Democracy will win with reduced majorities.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS.

They Feel Sure of State and Legislative Results.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—The early vote is very large here. Fully half the registered vote has been cast. Advice at Republican headquarters for the interior of the state are the vote will be heavy. Republican leaders are very confident and hold to their first claims on state and legislative results.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Nov. 6.—A heavy snow storm has set in, and it is likely to lessen the vote, which has been very light so far. A Republican plurality of 700 is conceded here.

TAUBENECK'S FORECAST.

Believes the Populists Will Have 23 Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Mr. Taubeneck, chairman of the Populist congressional committee, professes to believe that the Populists will hold the balance of power in the next house.

He expects his party to elect at least four congressmen in Georgia, two in North Carolina, one in South Carolina, two or three in Texas, five in Kansas, three in Nebraska, one in Minnesota, one in South Dakota, two in Colorado, one in Nevada and one in Idaho. He figures on at least twenty-three Populist congressmen and hopes for a half dozen more.

Both the Republicans and Democrats, on the other hand, believe there will be a falling off in the Populist vote in all the states where the experiment of Populism has been tried in the local government. This includes Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado and South Carolina. It is conceded that the Populists may gain votes in a few states, but the gains will not be sufficient to materially effect the congressional elections. Mr. Taubeneck thinks that Illinois will surprise the country in the size of its Populist vote and he professes to believe that the solid labor vote in Chicago will be cast for the Populist candidates.

CHICAGO'S WOMEN VOTE.

The Fashionable Women Are All Working to Get Voters Out.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Speculation among politicians generally has been rife as to whether the women of Chicago would exercise the privilege of suffrage extended to them today. Reports go to show that they have improved the opportunity to the utmost, all classes in all sections of the city having shown up in goodly numbers. Members of Chicago's "400" have been working all day to see that all women entitled to vote have done their duty at the polls and the polling places in the wealthy districts on all sides of the city have had numerous carriages in line waiting for their fair occupants to express their political preference in voting.

This will account largely for the quiet and orderly behavior at all the polling stations throughout the city, the influence of ladies naturally restraining any violent outbreaks on the part of overenthusiastic politicians.

MINNESOTA FORECASTS UNCERTAIN.

The Populist Vote Makes all Prophecies of No Account.

ST. PAUL, 2:30 p. m.—The uncertain quantity in all estimates has been the Populist vote. In the country districts it seems as if this would fall away to the advantage of the Republicans, but in the city the heavy labor vote was counted on with apparent good reason as solidly for Owens the Populist candidate for governor. Registration throughout the state showed gains in Republican and losses in Democratic precincts, which has been taken as an indication of the result of the vote. It now seems likely that the vote will reach the heavy vote of two years ago.

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 6.—It is snowing quite heavily at 1 o'clock. About one-third of the vote has been cast up to noon.

PHILADELPHIA'S VOTE HEAVY.

The Fight is Being Made on Congressman in Randall's Old District.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—The contest in this state, which was the most active in recent years, was fought almost entirely on national lines and the result has been that voters in every county are flocking to the polls. In this city interest centers almost exclusively in the third congressional district, formerly represented by Samuel J. Randall.

Wm. McAleer, Democrat, the present congressman's friends are cutting Joseph P. McCullen, the regular Democratic nominee, and voting for Frederick Hallerman, Republican, who is likely to be elected.

Is the bread better? It contains alum you may be sure. Bread raised with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is always sweet and wholesome.

POPULISTS STRONG.

Will Reduce the Democratic Plurality in Missouri to 15,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Missouri will return a Democratic majority, but it will be smaller than usual. Two years ago Governor Stone's plurality was 29,000. This year the Democratic plurality will hardly exceed 15,000. The Populists will have considerable to do in a bringing about of this result. Two years ago they polled 30,000 votes. They were poorly organized then.

Into this campaign they entered with a determination to elect somebody. They put up candidates for state offices, for congress in nearly every district and for almost all county offices, and they will undoubtedly poll a much larger vote than in 1892. They will elect a number of members of the legislature, but the Democrats will have a majority.

MICHIGAN HAS A GOOD DAY.

The State is Conceded to the Republicans by 20,000.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—A bright cool day and a hot local fight are having the effect of bringing out a full vote. The state is conceded to the Republicans by at least 20,000 plurality and the interest in Detroit is centered in the county and congressional tickets. Much scratching is being done and surface indications point to a mixed result.

POPULISTS IN IOWA.

They Cast a Surprisingly Large Vote in East Des Moines.

EAST DES MOINES, Nov. 6.—It looks as though the Populists will attract many of the size of their vote, mainly from the Democrats. The indications are that the presidential vote of the state will be nearly equalled. Hull (Rep.) will probably be elected to congress from this district.

IN WASHINGTON.

The Contest There is on the Legislative Ticket.

SEATTLE, Wn., Nov. 6.—More than the usual degree of interest is shown in the election in Washington today the principal contest is on the legislative ticket. It is expected that the Republicans will elect both congressmen and justices of the supreme court.
